

Credit: Maksym Vasin , IRF

The heads of churches and religious organizations visited Kramatorsk, praying for peace in Ukraine, met with soldiers and the relatives of captives. □ □ □

An out meeting of the Ukrainian Council of Churches was held on November 2, 2016 at the “Sarmat” military base with participating of the joint staff officers of the Central Department of Ukrainian Security Service in the region of Antiterrorist Operation, the Institute for Religious Freedom reports.

The heads of religious unions agreed a joint Appeal on strengthening of peace and Ukrainian society’s onward . By this document the Ukrainian Council of Churches urges to lay down the arms those who took it illegally, who came to the Ukrainian land with criminal and occupation intents.

Ukrainian Council of Churches visited soldiers and prayed for peace in Donbas (VIDEO)

Monday, 07 November 2016 18:00

Ukrainian Council of Churches visited soldiers and prayed for peace in Donbas (VIDEO)

Monday, 07 November 2016 18:00

Ukrainian Council of Churches visited soldiers and prayed for peace in Donbas (VIDEO)

Ukrainian Council of Churches visited soldiers and prayed for peace in Donbas (VIDEO)

Monday, 07 November 2016 18:00

Ukrainian Council of Churches visited soldiers and prayed for peace in Donbas (VIDEO)

